

I believe lifting the cross-ownership ban would be extremely detrimental to the quality and objectivity of the news.

This would also tend to concentrate media ownership in fewer hands within a community, thus drastically reducing the diversity of representation (of political tilt) that comes from a diversity of ownership.

I vehemently oppose the FCC's attempt to eliminate the cross-ownership ban.